I enjoy any of the Elden Ring Product Key games. I'm currently playing "Fallen Knight" and I really enjoy it. It has a great atmosphere with such a unique setting. I always come away with new stories, good and bad. There are many characters and I really enjoy the different dialogs. This game was released during "Winter" so it may have been a little too cold for me to handle. I found the battle system to be a little frustrating. I also had a hard time "finding" it. In certain areas in the maps and fortresses I seemed to just wander around a bit and suddenly I found myself in a battle. It was usually with a level higher than me so I had to ask for help. Once I figured out how the battle system worked I was having no problem. There were only two weapons that I liked: the spear and the sword. The ax is nearly useless in melee. It has the most skill and damage but it takes time to throw it. The spear is simple to use and is easy to control. Unlike the Ax the spear will fly forward even if you release the button. The sword requires some work and is fun to use. I liked the way that you could block and attack at the same time. The weak part of the sword is that you have to buff6bb2d33
