Watch Ong bak 1 movie online free in good video.London, New Zealand (CNN) -- Prince Philip has warned the United Kingdom not to become complacent about its military power and position. Prince Philip has been handed the reins of the Queen's household, and said the British people should expect "good, tough fighting" if necessary. He delivered his message at a service to mark the 64th anniversary of the D-Day landings, one of the most significant events of World War II. "It must be remembered that two world wars were fought under the British flag," the 93-year-old said. "What we have seen in our lifetimes is the fierce power of those two world wars, and the far-reaching political and economic consequences they had. "It is now so often forgotten that we have more than one island in the world, and that we are not an island. We are far from an island and we should not now become complacent about our military power and our position," he said. "What we have seen in our lifetimes is the fierce power of those two world wars, and the far-reaching political and economic consequences they had.
