What's new:

2 Releasing several patches at once is an all but constant theme in the Paradox Real-time Strategy gaming universe. However, for the PC Building Simulator, we are determined to give our players the most content as humanly and time-conveniently possible. That is precisely why we are not releasing just one or two or three patches together - we are going to release five patches just...one patch. More specifically - two patches each day for the month of November. To celebrate our November releases I am bringing us the Esports Expansion 2 which is the second expansion to the PC Building Simulator - Multiplayer and Expansion Pack which adds dozens of new buildings and scenarios to the original game. The first expansion of this kind was released in September and gave us not only the first update with quests and vassal management but also much more content. However, at the same time as bringing our players a new building set, we are adding new units, new units should you want to use them with the expansion for multiplayer, more scenarios, an evil new government leader, a new event and more. Read this article to find out more. The Esports Expansion 2 and all the additions will be available for two weeks after release. In this period of time, our support team and our community will analyze the data and see if there are any bugs or issues that we might have to address. The patch will also be released for the Mac users on top of the PC users. The article will explain the patch to you and why there will be a delay of three weeks between patch releases and so no updates for the last two weeks of November. ESP 1.3 - Patch 1: Economy Simulations with Empire Simulation Profiler (Esp 2) The first patch of the month is a base update of the game. If you want to learn about all the game mechanics and mechanics now released in the game click here. The first change is still the same on the economy side. Traders now need to be budget-conscious. We realize that you shouldn't be buying buildings and scenarios and keep selling for years at a time. But we realize that you already bought those buildings and we are not going to pull the plug just because the economy hasn't produced enough for you. Building-wise as well as upon the build mechanics this is a budget edition. That is what we are bringing you today and tomorrow. The required CPU for building up your empire can still use any CPU - meaning dual core

Stellaxy is an in-development MMORPG game. Currently in Early Access, it has been in development for close to a year and a half. Currently, the game is still in development with an estimated release date of 2019, however what will be included in the final release of the game will be unknown. In the meantime, the current version of the game is already quite fun and engaging, however, if you are looking for a fun online multiplayer game, we recommend that you play the latest build of the game and experience what we have created so far. Inspired by games like Star Citizen, Elite, The Universe, GalCiv and more, Stellaxy serves as a fun space exploration RPG. Each of the planets you explore and alien races you trade with will have their own unique culture, unique environments, unique technology and enemies that will challenge you. You will encounter a large variety of creatures along your journey, ranging from the innocent and peaceful to the deadly and monstrous. It features all the conveniences of a RPG including skill trees, experience points, a persistent player character and items that can be earned or looted. The Problem: The Problem was recently identified, but not yet fixed. There is an issue with the player being able to enter the game after a while, which causes the program to load the graphics of the console version instead of the other version. What You Can Do: If you would like to help with the problem, we would be more than happy to have you help us with debugging this issue. This is an Early Access Project, however, it is still in development and the final game is currently uncertain. We feel that this would be a great opportunity for new people to jump on board and help us debug this bug. Unfortunately, we are still unable to do much about it without support, however, if you would like to help us to solve this problem, we would be more than happy to have you on our team. Ideally, we will have that part of the game ready for a Beta by late Spring or Summer 2018. For help, read our FAQ for further information on the process. You can also visit our Discord channel to chat with our developers and fellow players! Source: A: In STEIIAXY, simply press F12 and select "Launch Steam" option. Press ESC to
