Determination of
respondent New York City

Department of Health and Mental Hygiene, after a hearing, dated
November 17, 2015,
which terminated
petitioner's employment with respondent New York City Health and Hospitals Corporation
(HHC) as of November 24, 2014, denying him
the right to serve, upon request of the respondent City of New York, as the Commissioner of the respondent HHC, upon a written complaint filed by the respondent City of New York, pursuant to Health and Mental Hygiene Law § 1233-a,

unanimously confirmed,
the petition dismissed, without costs, and the proceeding brought pursuant to CPLR article 78 denied. A court erred in upholding the determination to terminate petitioner's employment where: (1) there was a procedural error in petitioner's notice of discipline; and (2) it was error to find that the allegations of misconduct, namely that petitioner made false statements about his life insurance policies in a document titled

"Employment
Agreement" with HHC,
